

Journal

Describe a situation from your past in which you did not take action because you were afraid of the consequences. How would you respond to a similar situation today?