

They must hand in a write-up by the end of the class. This must include the following:

- their idea in great detail
- the reason why they think it will sell to both middle and high school students
- What items they need?
- The projected cost of items
- How will they adverse?
- Why did they pick the group they are in?
- What is each person's strength to the group? (If alone, what is your strength and what is your downfall
- Who is doing which task for your business?
- When will you get together to complete this at home?