

Counting Nickels and Dimes

- Use cupcake liners or use a piece of paper to create this activity.
- Have your child show the amount written in each cupcake holder using a combination of nickels and dimes.
- Next Step: Can they show the amount in a different way using a different combination of coins?
- If your child is ready, challenge them to use some quarters.

