

Hello, Grade 4!

Your home learning assignment this week is to write an autobiography. On each page there are bullets to give you an idea of what to write about. I have also included a copy of my autobiography for you to use as an example. Take your time to keep it nice and neat and use your word wall if you need to. I can't wait to read all about you!

Like always, reach out if you have any questions!

- What was your best day?

My best day was when I got offered my first full time teaching job. When I received the e-mail I was so excited. My heart started to beat really fast. I couldn't wait to call my mom and tell her the exciting news. That night I was so happy. I went to Pizza Delight to celebrate.
