

Animal Classification

Invertebrates - any animal that does not have a back bone.

Categories of Invertebrates (we will focus on are the following)

5 Types of Invertebrates

Sponges - are the most primitive of the animal groups.

- They live in water.
- They do not move from place to place.
- They filter tiny organism out of the water.

Facts: Sponges - YouTube

Why Sea Sponges Are So Expensive | So Expensive - YouTube

Fun fact

How Luffa Sponges Are Made - Y

Coelenterates - are similar to sponges. They live in water.

- They may or may not move from place to place.
- They have stinging tentacles.
- Soft Bodies
- Reproduce by budding (growing small body part that falls off and grows into a new organism).

Jelly fish, anomes (where nemo lives)